16                  ORDER DENYING MOTION
17                  FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
18                  IN WHICH TO AMEND
19                  COMPLAINT

20                  On May 2, 2018, plaintiff filed a motion for extension of time in which to amend 21 her complaint. Dkt. # 4. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(1)(B), plaintiff may amend her 22 complaint once as a matter of course and without additional permissions or approvals up
23 until 21 days after defendants serve their answer or file a motion to dismiss, whichever 24 is earlier. After that point in time, plaintiff will need agreement of the parties or an order of the Court to amend her complaint. In addition, the Court will issue a case management order that sets a final deadline for any amended pleadings: that deadline is intended to allow the parties to prepare for trial with confidence that they know what the case is about. Because none of these deadlines has yet passed or is imminent, plaintiff's motion for an extension is DENIED as unnecessary.
